MUSE/IQUE'S "RAIL-BOUND SOUND" FUNDRAISER
AN ADVENTUROUS CONCERT IN MOTION AS
PARTY-GOERS TRAVEL BY TRAIN
FROM PASADENA'S DEL MAR METRO TO UNION STATION WITH FOOD, SPIRITS AND MUSIC BEFORE, DURING AND AFTER

October 20, 2013, 4 pm

MUSE/IQUE, known for its counter-conventional presentations, announces "RAIL-BOUND SOUND!," a musical rail-bound adventure combining movement, music, spirits and supper on Sunday, October 20, 2013, at 4 pm. Guests at the exclusive fundraiser, limited to 100 guests, begin at Pasadena's Del Mar Metro Station with cocktails, music and designer "nibbles" beside the platform before riding on a metro train car to L.A.'s Union Station. There, supper and a pop-up music performance are served at the historic Fred Harvey House, designed by architect Mary Colter and built in 1939, the last in businessman Fred Harvey's collection of 84 railway restaurants stretching from Kansas to California. Afterward, party-goers return to the Del Mar station via luxury motor coach. Proceeds benefit MUSE/IQUE and its community outreach programs, including KIDS/IQUE!, which serves boys and girls, ages 12 to 18, in the San Gabriel Valley's network of residential foster care facilities.

"Since MUSE/IQUE's inception, our concerts have been celebrated for blending unexpected musical styles in surprising and ever-shifting venues, so it's only fitting that our first gala reflects that spirit," says MUSE/IQUE Executive Director Brian Colburn. "Our inaugural gala spotlights not only LA's distinctive mobile culture but also MUSE/IQUE's unique focus on 'reimagining' sites for musical events where guests enjoy an eclectic array of performers as they've never heard or seen them before."

MUSE/IQUE's inspired, unexpected live music events connect master artists with new voices across a limitless range of styles. Its performances, including an "Uncorked" series in October, November, February, March and April, and "Summer of Sound" in June, July and August, feel more like parties than formal concerts as they link musicians with great thinkers and compelling visual, cinematic and dance artists. KIDS/IQUE! presents ongoing interactive experiences with professional musicians and other artists designed to complement the service goals of the foster care facilities even as they allow MUSE/IQUE to reach otherwise underserved youth.

“RAIL-BOUND SOUND: The Gold Line Gala” has been generously underwritten by Harvey Knell.

The Del Mar Metro Station is located at 230 South Raymond Avenue, Pasadena, CA 91105. Suggested attire is "cocktail smart" with shoes that travel. For tickets, which are $1,250 per person, please call 626-539-7085 or visit www.muse-ique.com.

MUSE/IQUE, known for its inspired, unexpected live music events, connects master artists with new voices across a limitless range of styles. Its counter-conventional performances, which feel more like parties than formal concerts, link musicians with great thinkers and compelling visual, cinematic and dance artists. In the two years since MUSE/IQUE was founded by Artistic Director Rachael Worby, it has grown from one performance with a handful of devoted followers to a major cultural presence that reaches vast audiences. Its considerable membership currently numbers more than 500 people. In the fall and spring, MUSE/IQUE presents “Uncorked” evenings at unconventional locations, and in the summer MUSE/IQUE features three outdoor "music parties" at Caltech's Beckman Mall, all curated by the innovative and visionary Worby. Among MUSE/IQUE's guest artists are Jessye Norman, Charlie Haden, Patti Austin, Mary Wilson, Flea, Rickie Lee Jones, Ellis Hall, Matt Haimovitz, Angela Bassett, Arturo Sandoval and more. Uncorked's “pop-up” venues have included Pasadena's Phoenix Decorating Center (where Rose Parade floats are constructed), Art Center College of Design Sculpture Garden, Castle Press (one of the nation's largest printing presses), backstage at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium and others. KIDS/IQUE!, a primary element of the organization, serves boys and girls, ages 12 to 18, in the San Gabriel Valley's network of foster care services by presenting ongoing interactive experiences with professional musicians and other artists designed to complement the service goals of the foster care facilities even as they allow MUSE/IQUE to reach otherwise underserved youth. Other outreach programs include free and low-cost tickets for students and community groups, and "Free For All," a free annual concert featuring a fusion of music with family friendly surprises.
